Lenten Wednesdays: Lectio Divina at 6pm and simple Lenten Supper at 6:30 -

Sign up to bring a simple supper of soup and bread, or beans and rice - something easy to share.

From 6-6:30 we will read and contemplate scripture.

At 6:30 we will gather around the table for a simple supper, customary for Lent.

Please sign up for one of the Wednesdays in Lent to bring a simple supper for sharing: email janemherring@gmail.com

February 21 or 28, March 6, 13, 20, or 27.

Also:

Looking to Holy Week:

Maundy Thursday Supper of the Lamb: We will gather at EPC on Maundy Thursday, March 28th at 6:30. John and Terry Denton provide lamb and we all bring side dishes and desserts. It is a beautiful time together and I encourage all to attend, truly a church family occasion. We break bread together, have a brief liturgy of prayers and readings, and share memories and stories. Just as Jesus gathered with his beloved disciples, we gather ourselves up in His presence to break bread and remember.

Good Friday, March 29th at 6:30: We gather in the sanctuary for a quiet, contemplative service of Word, Prayer, and Lamentation, acknowledging the continuing ramifications of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world.

Bring the burdens of your heart and put them upon the cross of Jesus Christ at this Good Friday service.

Bring fresh flowers to place on the cross on Easter Sunday and we will see this same cross flower as we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord.

- We have 3 slots in May left to fill. Won't you give it a try? – its fun, allows you to stretch yourself a little, helps interact with scripture in a different way and connect with God from a new perspective.

- If you wish to volunteer, please send an email to: epcbusiness9770@gmail.com or call 615-473-3510.

Prayer and Praise:

Job 42:10 (NIV)

10 After Job had prayed for his friends, the LORD restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before.

Quotes about prayer:

Prayers outlive the lives of those who uttered them; outlive a generation, outlive an age, outlive a world. EM Bounds

You are invited...

During the Lenten season, the EPC prayer group gathers on Wednesdays after the Lectio Divina service and supper to lift the prayers of the congregation and others. Come join us for reflection, followed by fellowship and then prayer. What more could you ask for!

It is our fervent prayer that this ministry is a blessing to the rest of our EPC family and beyond.

²Nueva Vida:

A request has come in for help from our Hispanic neighbors at Nueva Vida, a church we have partnered with in the past. They operate a food pantry that provides other necessities as well. Think of this as a Lenten “give to” item instead of a Lenten “give up” item. The following starred items are the most needed:

*Diapers (both those for children and for adults)

*Feminine hygiene products

*Laundry detergent and fabric softener

Cooking oil

Rice

*Red beans, black beans

*Tortilla corn flour

*Cornmeal

Beds of all sizes

Powdered milk

Warm weather gear - coats/hats/gloves/warm socks

There is a collection box outside the children’s classroom. Thank you so much for helping us meet this need.

Current donations should be made by mailing a check to the church or sending an online payment through your banking payment function. (Or in person, wink, wink)!

Fellowship/Worship

One of our upcoming fellowship and worship activities will be the Supper of the Lamb. The other is the weekly zoom reading of John Meacham's book, The Hope of Glory. See below for details on both events.

Looking forward to Holy Week:

Maundy Thursday Supper of the Lamb: We will gather at EPC on Maundy Thursday, March 28th at 6:30. John and Terry Denton provide lamb and we all bring side dishes and desserts. It is a beautiful time together and I encourage all to attend, truly a church family occasion. We break bread together, have a brief liturgy of prayers and readings, and share memories and stories. Just as Jesus gathered with his beloved disciples, we gather ourselves up in His presence to break bread and remember.

Good Friday, March 29th at 6:30: We gather in the sanctuary for a quiet, contemplative service of Word, Prayer, and Lamentation, acknowledging the continuing ramifications of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ for the salvation of the world.

Bring the burdens of your heart and put them upon the cross of Jesus Christ at this Good Friday service.

This same cross will flower on Easter morning as we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord.

Easter Sunday: We gather for our 10am Worship Service in great gladness to celebrate the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. Special music, the flowering cross, Easter tidings and treats.

Last Tuesday was the first of three Tuesday night Zoom group discussions of Jon Meacham's The Hope of Glory.

Come on in to the Zoom Room @7pm. Check your email for link to enter on Tuesdays.

I hope folks will have questions and comments, but please feel free to join in for just listening.

We are a richly varied community and benefit from each other's thoughts and experiences, whether they are similar to our own or very different - part of the beauty of being the Body of Christ together.

Join us for fellowship and a fresh cup of coffee around the kitchen window!

Christian Education:

Inquirers of all ages:

- Please reach out to Pastor Jane about what it means to be baptized, to be confirmed in the church (if you have already been baptized) or to join the church.

Children’s Services:

- The children, big and small, (all those under 18!) are invited to participate in a special practice time for something being planned on Palm Sunday. If possible, I need parents to allow their children to come to the kid’s classroom when Jane finishes her sermon, sometime during the offertory til the end of church. Thank you.
- At Emmanuel we offer a “kid’s message” during the early part of the worship service, followed by a “children’s church” in the kid’s classroom for those up to 10 years old or still in elementary school. The message is a short story that usually has some sort of lesson related to it and in children’s church we usually discuss the story in more depth and follow it with a craft or activity that helps the story (and the lesson!) sink in.
- A nursery is available for those under 3.
- We offer a “chat time ” in a safe space for those over 10 who want some time to share what is on their mind.
- We always have two adults with the children and their safety and education is our top priority.

Building and Grounds:

Due to the success of last year's gardening efforts, we need 3 more plots. If you can help do some sawing and hammering after church on Sunday March 24th, it would be oh so greatly appreciated. Lunch provided. All supplies provided but a circular saw or two and extra tape measures would be nice. Bring your own hammer and safety goggles. See Faith for details.

Also needed for new seedlings:

Large yogurt or sour cream containers

½ gallon milk jugs (clear or not)

old pool noodles of any length

clear 2-liter soda bottles

½ quart ice cream containers

any 2' or 3' pieces of scrap gutter

If you have any of these items, please bring to the children's classroom. Thank you.

Your donated TP roll is on the job!
